INVESTMENTS FOR WOMEN.

No form of investment will yield you a better per cent. than well selected real estate. If you have a few hundred dollars that is lying idle in your dresser drawer, or in bank, invest it in some Maysville property which will bring you from 6 to 10 per cent. and be likely to increase in value. Nothing better. See John Duley.

Of the pleasant entertainments honoring Miss Lida Rogers one of the most delightful was the tea given by Miss Mary Noyes yesterday afternoon. The beautiful home of Miss Noyes was made unusually attractive within and without by the gorgeous autumn foliage plants. The color scheme, red and green, was carried out in wedding bells and hearts, suggestive of the approaching marriage of the guest of honor. Congratulations and good wishes were accompanied by sweet strains of music. Miss Noyes was assisted in receiving her guest by Misses Florence Rogers, Hattie Dobyns, Grace Anderson; Mesdames John Mil-lina Hunt, Charles C. Hopper, W. W. Akers and James E. Threlkeld. Misses Mary Wood and Phoebe Waller presided in the dining-room, and Misses Nettie Cook Dobyns and Lucy Baldwin served at the punch bowl. Misses Florence Darnell, Lily May Wardle, Hilda Threlkeld and Allene Glascock assisted in greeting the guests.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort received a letter yesterday from John J. Dawson, Chief of Police of Huntington, W. Va., in which he details several of W. O. Banks's actions in the Virginia town.

The telephone seems to have been his favorite aid in defrauding people out of their money.

At the Foster-Mead Hardware Store of Huntington he asked to be shown some revolvers, and after looking at them for a time concluded not to purchase, and turned away as if to leave the store, at the same time the salesman going to another part of the house.

Instead of passing on out he stepped to a telephone nearby, and calling up Miss Medford, Bookkeeper for the Huntington Land Company, and imitating the voice of the gentleman as nearly as he could, said—"This is Mr. Foster. Will you please hand $50 to our porter when he comes up stairs. I wish the money at once."

The gentleman being a large stockholder in the concern the Bookkeeper thought nothing wrong of the request, and when the Negro came up stairs he gave him the money.

Something in the fellow's manner aroused her suspicions, and on going down stairs she was informed by Mr. Foster that he had made no such request; in the meantime the thief had disappeared.

He tried the telephone racket the same day on several others, but the scheme failed to work.

The town becoming too hot for him he made his escape in a john boat.

Officers followed in a lanch, but he eluded his pursuers by deserting his craft and cutting out across the country.

Chief Ort sent Banks's picture to the Huntington Officer and it was identified as the same man.

In case he is not indicted by the Mason Circuit Court Grand Jury, he will be detained on a warrant charging him with being a fugitive from justice, and held for the Virginia Chief of Police.

Coroner George W. Orr is able to be out after a very sick spell.

The concrete work along the line of the track in Third street has been advanced sufficiently as to permit the streetcars to make through trips some time during the day.

A phone message from Cincinnati was received here yesterday for Elijah Queen, colored, of the county. His brother is dead and the authorities want to know what disposition shall be made of the body.

Rev. John Barbour goes this afternoon to Falmouth, by appointment of Presbytery, to assist in the installation of a Pastor over the Churches of Falmouth and New Concord. There will be no preaching at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow.

With every dollar's worth of goods bought at P. J. Murphy's, you get a ticket on the elegant "Diamond Ring." Now is your opportunity to buy goods at a low price and get a ticket, which costs you nothing.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Police Court.

George Todor, John Paul and J. F. Riley, plain drinks, were fined and costed $8.50 each.

WHAT HE DID THERE

Telephonic Exploits of W. O. Banks at Huntington, W. Va.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort received a letter yesterday from John J. Dawson, Chief of Police of Huntington, W. Va., in which he details several of W. O. Banks's actions in the Virginia town.

The telephone seems to have been his favorite aid in defrauding people out of their money.

At the Foster-Mead Hardware Store of Huntington he asked to be shown some revolvers, and after looking at them for a time concluded not to purchase, and turned away as if to leave the store, at the same time the salesman going to another part of the house.

Instead of passing on out he stepped to a telephone nearby, and calling up Miss Medford, Bookkeeper for the Huntington Land Company, and imitating the voice of the gentleman as nearly as he could, said—"This is Mr. Foster. Will you please hand $50 to our porter when he comes up stairs. I wish the money at once."

The gentleman being a large stockholder in the concern the Bookkeeper thought nothing wrong of the request, and when the Negro came up stairs he gave him the money.

Something in the fellow's manner aroused her suspicions, and on going down stairs she was informed by Mr. Foster that he had made no such request; in the meantime the thief had disappeared.

He tried the telephone racket the same day on several others, but the scheme failed to work.

The town becoming too hot for him he made his escape in a john boat.

Officers followed in a lanch, but he eluded his pursuers by deserting his craft and cutting out across the country.

Chief Ort sent Banks's picture to the Huntington Officer and it was identified as the same man.

In case he is not indicted by the Mason Circuit Court Grand Jury, he will be detained on a warrant charging him with being a fugitive from justice, and held for the Virginia Chief of Police.

THE HOME STORE.

A COMMON COMMENT MADE BY THE TRAVELING PEOPLE WHO VISIT MAYSVILLE: "We see more well dressed men here than in any town double its size in the country." This is made possible by having in this community one of the largest and most up-to-date Men's, Boys' and Children's Outfitting Establishments in the state. A bit of repartee heard any day on our streets: "Hello! That's a swell suit you have on. Where did you get it?" Down at Heck's place is invariably the reply. These few days of pleasant weather will soon pass and cold weather will set in. Why not come in while the lines are complete and make your selections, whether it be a Suit, Overcoat, Cravenette or whatever you need for winter wear that pertains to a gentleman's outfit. Shoes—We only carry three lines—Hanan, Douglas and Walkover, the name stamped on each particular make. You know what they are. We do. They are the best that can be procured or we would not have them.

CINCINNATI is infested with eighteen tons of soot daily, and yet she is not happy. But, fortunately, she doesn't want any more Dempseyism in hers.

CONGRESS, unfortunately, hasn't provided enough offices to go around. Fact is, there are so many worthy and competent Republicans, that Judge BENNETT hasn't been able to crown them all with an official title.

WONDER how much farther behind her sister states Kentucky will be allowed to trail before her people wake up to the importance of sending business men instead of politicians to the Legislature to make laws for them?

WHAT, pray tell, does a Wolfe county horse trader know about the local needs of a city like Maysville? Why, then, should the gentleman from Wolfe determine what sort of law the Legislature shall pass for the government of Maysville? Give the cities of Kentucky "Home Rule."

W. L. GLAZIER, the Contractor who built the icepiers in this city, has just been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury at Covington for permitting one of the men employed on the job to work more than eight hours. How I do wish somebody would frame a law making it a crime for a newspaperman to work more than sixteen hours a day in telling his readers what a great and good country this is, and what disinterested patriots the politicians are.

Mr. BRYAN will be so blame busy from now on that he cannot possibly find a spare day to put in for Mr. HEARST.

The issue in the coming Congressional elections is very easily stated. It simply is whether Republican policies shall be continued or shall be repudiated. The natural inquiry arises—What are Republican policies? Well, they can be stated simply and concisely. They represent what the Republican party has been working for in legislation and National administration since 1895. They are—

First—The maintenance of the American dollar on a basis which makes it worth 100 cents of the best money the world over.

Second—The continuance of the general principle of Protection to American Industries, which gives so many American workmen the preference to earn that dollar as against the cheap labor of Europe.

Third—The economic system, based on Protection, which affords to the American farmer the best market for his products to be found in the world.

Fourth—The practical execution of the Anti-Trust Laws, made by a Republican Congress, ignored by a Democratic Administration, and now enforced by a Republican Administration, producing actual results in the disbandment of hurtful combinations and the punishment of officials of those combines who have violated the law. Ambitious leaders having personal ends to serve may promise great works in opposing the Trusts, but the Republican Administration can show results in punishing combinations hurtful to the general welfare.

Fifth—Progressive legislation in behalf of the people.

Again, the Republican party delivers the goods, as shown by the passage of the free alcohol bill, the extension of the rural free delivery service, appropriations for the irrigation of arid lands, the opening of new reservations to homestead settlement, pushing the work on the Panama Canal, the construction of public buildings, additional appropriations for river and harbor work and the like.

As against these live issues the Democratic party presents only one proposition, namely—Let's have a change! The Democracy does not have at this day any vital proposition to offer to the voters. It advocates only unrest and instability. The Republican party has done its whole duty and the voters know it, and they also know as in the past the party will do its whole duty in the future.

Chicago Expert Says Only Married Men Know How to Kiss
Mrs. Katherine Doelle of Chicago, young and a widow, is suing Frank E. Dooling, a Springfield politician, for $800, which she claims she lent him, and kisses which she confesses blushing she gave him outright.
"Few single men know how to kiss," declared the pretty widow. "I should have known Mr. Dooling was married by the way he kissed me. Married men know how to kiss better than single men. Their kisses are longer and more heartfelt."
"After he got my money he did not seem so fond, and then I discovered that Dooling had been married all the time. So now I want the money back and I wish I hadn't let him have the kisses."

FORT McHENRY NO MORE!

Orders to Abandon the Venerable and Honorable Structure

Commercial Tribune.

Fort McHenry is to be abandoned. There is no longer room for it in the economy of the military service, notwithstanding the magnificent part it played in the history of the United States—not the least of which was giving the National anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner," to the country. Orders have been issued from the War Department directing the Twenty-sixth Artillery, now manning the post, to vacate on or before March 1st, 1907, and Fort McHenry will no longer be a military post.

Established in 1794 it has had more than a century of honorable service. It cannot be placed on the pension roll, notwithstanding the battering it took from the British on September 12th, 1814, and notwithstanding the greater and the more effective battering it gave in return. Some patriotic society ought to take the matter up on behalf of the gallant old fort.

When Secretary Bonaparte sought to dismantle and to destroy the frigate Constitution he heard from the patriotic women of the land and held hands off. It might be done for Fort McHenry, as it was done for the old frigate.

The War Department insists that Fort McHenry has outlived its usefulness. Possibly! But it has not outlived its gallant history, and never will, and if stronger defenses are needed—build them. But hold on to Fort McHenry, which inspired "The Star Spangled Banner" while the British shells were bursting over it and where the British, after burning Washington, met defeat from its men and its guns and its walls.

A delegation of five, headed by Chief Quasah Parker, representing the Apache tribe of Indians, visited Washington recently to make a last plea before the President and War Department for liberty, a definite location and allotments of land.

Three expert accountants from the Department at Washington, working under a Deputy United States Treasurer, counting more than $20,000,000 in the Subtreasury vaults in St. Louis, are said to have discovered a shortage of $61,000.

A soldier of the St. Petersburg garrison who killed Mlle. Semova, a young medical student, because she showed herself at a window of her cell overlooking the courtyard, has been given a reward of $5 for the brutal killing, and held up as an example to his comrades.

FOUR FULL FLOORS

We have leased the entire Dodson Building and have rearranged the interior. A fine elevator with safety catch has been put in service. Thus we have the most complete apartments in the city stocked with Clothing, Furnishings, Trunks, Bags, Cases, Hats, Caps, each selected from a specialist in his respective line.

OUR MERCHANT TAILORING

Is in charge of practical men. We have a large line of woolsens, hence we feel justified in saying that ours is the most complete assortment of Men's and Boys' Wear in Maysville.

The exclusiveness of the H. S. & M. Clothes for Men, and the striking individuality of E. S. & Co. (Xtrago!) for the rising generation, are the factors that give us first place in the clothing trade. It is the fair treatment that we give to all; it is the Guarantee that goes with every article; it is the fact that you can exchange your purchase for the money; it is the Selling of Honest and Dependable Merchandise at Prices that are Lower than Others get for Cheap Stuff; it is the Marking in Plain Figures, placing the Child's judgment on a par with the Parent, that has Caused Us to Grow. Come and see us.

Respectfully,

J. Wesley Lee

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Maysville

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that the relief was permanent and the cure perfect. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cahill's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and again found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years, I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory. I got the remedy at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box, Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
